TEXAS HEALTH PROMOTION WEEK MARCH 30 APRIL 5 1924

From Sunday March 30 to Saturday April 5 is Texas Health Promotion Week. Cameron can do no better thing than observe this week by carrying out the program suggested by the State Board of Health and the State Insurance Commission. "Our Town" editor would respectfully call this program to the attention of the city health officers with the recommendation that an active cooperation be extended to the state. One of the great advantages of modern trend in government is the enlightenment along public health lines so that with each succeeding year the necessity for including in the budget funds for health work is becoming more manifest. Civic societies can do no better thing than to take up the health week program.

At least one candidate for Governor has told the truth about the tax burden. Senator Collins of Dallas says that the burden of taxation cannot be reduced and goes on to show that the revenues derived from taxable soucres are necessarily much in excess of former years because of the increased demands of the governmental departments by reason of growth. Few counties pay in more taxes that they get back from the state and the tax burden is largely a local question. Funds available to the legislature for appropriation come largely from other than advalorem taxes. The trouble is the inequalities of taxation. The fact that the invisable wealth of this state and nation bears none of the tax burden should suggest itself to thinking men of the day as offering the only real opportunity for economic service in government. The road away from a thin treasury and the necessity of decreased governmental service is equality of tax burdens—placing upon the tax rolls of this state all wealth and not confining our collections from those who are so unfortunate as to own visable property.

After two years of exhaustive comment on our civic short-comings we are told that the plans from the landscape artist are in the hands of the board for the Yoe High School grounds. Persistence is a good thing, and, although sometimes faith covers a multitude of short comings, let us hope that perseverance will be rewarded in the very near future. Really we cannot understand why there shoulud be any disposition to delay this needed improvement.

SPRING.

The merry May hath pleasant hours,
and dreamily they glide,
As if they floated, like the leaves, upon a siler tide;
The trees are full of crimson buds,
the woods are full of brids,
And the waters flow to music, like a tune with pleasant words.

While the action of the City Council in requiring connections to be made with the sewer lines in Cameron is some twenty years late in coming into account, let us hope that the public health will fare better in the future. Any city government or council that neglects the public health is a failure in government service. It is said that a recent epidemic of dengue in Cameron cost the city at least $25,000. This amount is computed in time lost at least by business men and in physician's bills. The utenable position of the council in declining aid to public health work under Dr. Sutton is emphasized by a comparison that only about $1000 would be required to safeguard the city against an epidemic of this kind. We boast of our business acumen and wise financing but really we are conscious to only a limited extent regarding these major matters of civic service.

From the platforom of our ideal cadidate for a place in the legislature of Texas: "If I am elected I

SEMI-ANNUAL MEETING OF CLUB AT THE METHODIST CHURCH MONDAY NIGHT

The annual banquet of the Commercial Club will be held on Monday night in the basement of the Methodist chuyah.

At this time will occur the election of officers for the next semi-annual term.

Efforts were being made today to secure a speaker for the meeting and it was thought one of the faculty members from the state university would be secured. Tom S. Henderson, Jr., was in charge of the speaking committee.

Dr. Jas. Watson head of the entertainment committee was placing the tickets for the banquet.

A special effort is being made to get a large crowd present for the meeting.

EXPRESS COMPANY HERE MAKING IMPROVEMENTS.

The American Railway Express Company are this week pushing work on their office in Cameron, making many needed improvemnts, repainting and redecorating the interior.

The building is owned by W. H. Triggs and it is understood that additional building space will be provided in the rear of the building now occupied.

At one time the express company planned to build a new office building near the Santa Fe Railroad but it is understood a petition from people in Cameron has halted these plans.

Miss Nadine Bragg, a teacher in the Rosebud Public School, was a week end gust in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bragg. Her sister, Miss Earl Bragg, a Baylor University student, was here also to spend the vaction which comes between the winter and spring terms.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Davis visited friends in Hearne Sunday.

CANDIDATES FIGHTING HARD FOR LEAD THAT WILL MEAN ESSEX

Circulation Campaign Now at its Height--- Candidates Working Whole County For Subscriptions That Mean The Winning Vote.

The Herald's big circulation drive is now in full blast. The public is waking up to the enormity of ourpropostion and to take a very great interest while the candidates, realize that they have but few more days on the 100,000 extra vote offer and then that big day, April 19th will be staring them in the face, and they too, are making a hard fight while the fighting is good. They realize that now is next best chance to obtain a lead and consequently are fighting hard for that lead. Votes, votes, votes, that is their slogan and it cost the public not one cent to vote for a favorite.

Not only are the candidates showing pep and fire in their work but the campaign has begun to reach that stage where the public is beginning to wonder about the campaign and its outcome. The public is beginning to speculate as to the possible winner. Many are wondering just who is leading and by how much. There is one thing certain, neither of the cars have been won as yet, and there are many contenders for the honor. A few votes either way may decide the standing of any candidate in this race. I will say this, however, the energy and pep and determination demonstrated by a candidate is the best way in the world for any one of them to determine their standing, of course there is to be but one winner of the Essex and one winner of the Chevrolet Touring but you can just bet that the lady who is working with a detrmination to win is getting somewnere, candidates who are hitting the ball every minute are getting somewhere, candidates who are doing nothing, and we have but few of those, are getting nowhere.

100,000 EXTRA VOTES.

This next week marks the beginning of the 100,000 extra vote offer. Candidates will receive 100,000 extra votes this week on each and every $30 club turned into this office. It is expected that candidates will stack up quite an enormous vote during this vote period as this is the next best offer with a full two weeks, while the first period was more of a starting period than otherwise. It behoves every candidate to put forth her best effort NOW. There is plenty of time to gain a decided lead as yet. It will be harder, 'tis true but it can be done. It will be seen that the votes in this campaign run down hill instead of up hill. Today always means more than tomorrow. Take advantage of your opportunities today or forever kiss your chance of winning an Essex Coach good bye.

Candidates are now getting down to real work. They are putting forth every effort and spending every moment possible in securing votes. Mr. Public have you subscribed to the Herald as yet? Are you going to have it said that your

SALE OF BONDS TO BE MADE NEXT TUESDAY

$125,000 CITY SECURITIES WILL BE SOLD FOR SCHOOL AND DISPOSAL PLANT.

On next Tuesday night April 1 the city council will receive sealed proposals on $100,000 in school bonds and $25,000 in sewage disposal plant bonds.

The sale of the securities advertised to have taken place on March 18 was postponed on account of unsatisfactory bids and the disagreement in the school board as to the amount necessary of the issue of $150,000. An agreement has been reached whereby the city will sell $100,000 of these bonds for school purposes.

The issue to be sold will be for first maturities, the $50,000 balance being reserved and not sold if the plans of the board show it unnecessary to sell them.

The $25,000 disposal plant bonds are to be offered but both issues will be sold separately.

The city hopes to receive a large number of proposals for these securities. Despite the claim of a receding market it appears the bonds are still worth well above par.

SEARCHING FOR LOST GOODS OFFICERS IN CAMERON FIND STILL.

While searching for lost goods and money stolen from the Balhorn & Company wholesale house Saturday night, the sheriff's department found a still and a quantity of mash in a negro house. The negro was arrested and has been charged with violation of the liquor laws.

The money taken from the Balhorn Company amounted to about $15 or slightly more. So far the money has not been recovered.

Price Cross, Jr., of Greenville spent Tuesday night in Cameron with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Cross and left the following morning for San Antonio to visit his sister, Mrs. L. H. Krough.

HOTEL LANKFORD BADLY DAMAGED BY FLAMES

FIREMEN SAVE PART OF STRUCTURE BUT ROOF AND UPPER WALLS LOST.

Fire thought to have started from a defective flue early Thursday morning burned the roof and upper story of the Lankford hotel. The loss as estimated by Chief Thomas will amount to about $10,000.

The fire gained considerable headway before the firemen reached the place but good work and a good water supply enabled the firemen to save most of the furniture and some of the upper portion of the building. The firemen deserve special credit in this work in saving as much of the structure as possible. No one was injured.

The blaze which is supposed to have originated from a defective flue, was discovered about 6:30 and had already made considerable headway. The fire company responded promptly and by hard work saved the building from total destruction. The entire roof was burned and the upper story ruined by fire and water. Some of the furniture was removed without damage but most of it was badly damaged by water or broken when thrown from the windows.

The Lankford Hotel is well known in this part of the state.

It is the home of the proprietor, A. M. Lankford and family, and of a number of people who work in the city. Besides the regular boarders, the train crews on the Sap road take their meals here and it is the stopping place for many of the traveling people.

Logan Green, owner of the Green Produce House of Cameron, returned yesterday from Fort Worth where he attended a convention held by the Purina Company. Mr. Green stated that all of the Purina products, consisting mainly of stock and poultry feeds, were exhibited and demonstrated by the Company and many courtesies shown the visitors. About 250 dealers, handling the Purina Products, were in attendance.

Lions Hear Education Discussed At Luncheon

Tuesday members of the Lion's Club heard an educational program with speeches by Dr. A. S. Epperson, toastmaster and Rev. R. S. Marshall, pastor of the Methodist church.

Committees were appointed with group captains for the attendance contest which is to be inauguarted at once.

The captains are W. M. Cobb, E. V. Ferguson and J. H. Edwards.

Three new members were welcomed to the board in a speech by Paul Webb, lion tamer. The new members are Geo. T. Grages, Judd G. Davis and C. S. Peyton.

Dr. Epperson in his talk stressed more interest in school affairs and suggested a system of awards for competative efforts in the classes of the schools in order to stimulate as much as possible a greater educational effort on the part of the pupils.

Rev. R. S. Marshall followed with a talk along the lines of education, stressing its broadest and deepest implications. The first part of the address was a humorous indulgence at the expense of the president of the board Dr. Epperson.

Cyrus Miller, student of the grammar school, gave a declamation from and editorial in the Houston Chronicle, on Woodrow Wilson, one of the best numbers yet heard at the board.

At the next meeting of the club President Fisher hopes to have all members assigned to their committees and to make all further necessary committee appointemnts.

Rev. J. T. Love, pastor of the Episcopal church, was elected a member of the club.

Mrs. Jeff T. Avera received a message from Waco Tuesday morning announcing the death of her aunt, Mrs. Marion Dilworth. Mrs. Dilworth lived in Milam county several years before moving to Waco and has frequently visited in Cameron since her removal. Her death will bring profound sorrow to many old friends.

Council To Hold Hearing On Street Paving Costs

L. N. LUTZ EMPLOYED BY SANTA FE MERCHANTS AS A NIGHT WATCHMAN.

L. N. Lutz who was a candidate for City Marshal in the recent primaries has been employed by the citizens of Santa Fe town as a night watchman. The merchants are subscribing funds for this service and have asked the city to pay a portion of the amount. It is believed the city will agree to pay this amount.

The citizens there petitioned the city to appoint Mr. Lutz to this place.

J. M. Ralston left Tuesday afternoon for Houston where he will spend several days visiting with his brother who is reported ill. Mrs. Ralston who has been in Houston under treatment at a hospital for the past several months will return home with Mr. Ralston the latter part of the week. The many friends of Mrs. Ralston will be glad to learn of her recovery and will welcome her return to Cameron.

Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Huddleston, recntly married in Orange, have returned to Cameron and are receiving congratulation from numerous friends. Mr. Huddleston is pastor of the Buckholts, Minerva and Salem Methodist churches, making his home in Cameron.

Miss Angelina Marek, R. N. of Temple is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Marek, this week.

On Friday April 4 the City council will meet in special called session to hear property owners in regard to the assessments along their property lines.

R. D. Brown, city secretary and treasurer, has sent out notices by registered mail to all property owners a hearing on the costs of the paving.

If the property owners do not appear to contest any of the costs the assessments will be made as drawn. If they do appear and protest the assessments the meeting is called for the purpose of making any adjustment necessary.

However, the assessments are to be made under the law as provided, but the hearing is a courtesy provided by law as in the case of boards of equalization.

The meetings will be held in the Cameron State Bank building the regular meeting place of the council.

A complete list of the assessments showing the exact cost of the paving to each property owner has been furnished R. D. Brown, secretary, by A. F. Mitchell, engineer and all who wish to inquire in advance of the meeting as to their costs of paving may do so by seeing Mr. Brown.

COLLINS ATTACKS "QUO WARRANTO" IN SPEECH

UNCOSTITUTIONAL HE SAYS—SEES NO HOPE TO CUT STATE EXPENSES.

The only two issues in the governor's race in Texas are taxation and law enforcement, Senator V. A. Collins of Dallas, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor declared last evening in addressing a fair sized crowd at the Temple theatre in the interest of his candidacy. The senator was introduced by former Senator A. C. Buchanan of Temple and had in his audience former Governor James E. Ferguson, an opposing candidate in the governor's race.

Taxation, the first issue discussed, includes the matter of preparation for citizenship—public education, he said. He plaintly stated that he could not reduce taxes, declaring that the candidate who says he will reduce taxes either doesn't know what he is talking about or is a demagogue enough to presume upon the ignorance of the public."

"Ninety per cent of the taxes are imposed upon the people by themselves or by the city councils and commissioners' court. Here in your county you get back more money than you send down to Austin. Bell county sent to Austin $189,188.30 in ad valorum taxes collected last year and get back $230,256.67. Where does the money come from? It comes from intangible asset taxes on railroads, pipe lines, telephone companies; from gross production taxes on oil and sulphur, inheritance taxes and other taxes the average citizen does not pay—not half of the money subject to legislative appropriation is ad valorum tax."

The speaker said taxes could not be reduced without cutting the school funds and other state institutional funds. The constitutional requirement of six months school has not been carried out but ought to be, he asserted; to give six months schools under state scholastic appropriation will cost $6,000,000 increase next year. "You can't save money on the university because the constitution requires the maintenance of a first class university and we haven't it, as far as physical assets evidence; you can't save on the elemosnary institutions—there are 1,000 insane persons in county jails who ought to be in the asylums; I believe there could be departmental savings at Austin but it wouldn't amount to $2,000,000. This would not be enough to make up the school increase the constitution requires."

On law enforcement, he made it strictly a county issue, "Jurisdiction begins in your county; the sheriff is in charge of law enforcement in the county and the governor in the state. The governor can use the militia, rangers or national guard for only three purposes; to repel an invasion of the state, put down an insurrection or enforce the law. There hasn't been an insurrection since 1876. In enforcing the law he can help the sheriff but the military is always subordinate to the civil authority."

He bitterly attacked the "quo warranto" law, showing how a sheriff can be "removed from office in one hour by one citizen who will file suit and cite instances of malfeasance or misfeasance in an affidavit." He even more bitterly attacked the open port law, saying it is uncinstitutional and is a piece of class legislation. "The bill of rights prohibits the suspension of law by anyone but the open port law permits the governor to suspend the law."

In closing he replied to charges of his opponents that he was not a "business success." "I have been a success, though perhaps not by the standards of some modern business men. If I had spent as much time in business as I have in campaigning for prohibition and working for the people I would be a business success and could employ brass bands," he said. Glorying in prohibiton, he closed with a sweep of the Irish humor that is in his face and speech by declaring "it's no use to dream of the open sale of liquor again. You have three blankets of prohibtion—the Volstead law, the state law and local option."

His speech throughout was a plea for support of the constitution at any cost—in giving six months school, in law enforcement rights and in performance of duty.

Clean Kidneys By Drinking Lots of Water

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers or Back Hurts

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts can not injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

BIG INCREASE IS SHOWN IN 1924 CENSUS REPORT

ONE HUNDRED ADDINTIONAL SCHOLASTICS INDICATED BY SCHOOL CENSUS.

An increase in the scholastic population will be shown by the census report according to Grady Houston who is completing the canvass this week.

According to Mr. Houston the increase will exceed one hundred over the census report for last year. The work of the 1923 census has been progressing satisfactorily and it is believed an enumeration approximately complete has been competed.

Mr. Houston requests that if there are those who have not been seen that they get in touch with him at once to list their children. While the canvass has proceeded under careful plans it is possible that some have been overlooked and in order to make the canvass full Mr. Houston appeals for the names of any who may have been overlooked.

It is to the interest of the city to show every scholastic for the state apportionment of free school money is made on a basis of the scholastic population.

58,784 BALES COTTON GINNED IN MILAM COUNTY FOR 1924 REPORTS SHOW.

There were 58,784 bales of cotton ginned in Milam county from the crop of 1923 according to the report of the Federal Government recently issued. From the crop of 1922 there were ginned 44,198 bales of cotton. There was a net increase in the crop of 1923 over that of 1922 of 15,586 bales.

What this increase has meant to the county is answered by a price comparison of the two years. The condition of the cotton farmer in this county is better than for many years.

BEEF CANNING BUILDS UP MANY BANK BALANCES.

Rockdale, Texas, March 24.—Miss Gladys Henry, Milam county home economics agent, gave a demonstration of beef canning at a private home in Thorndale and with two young steers which dressed 150 lbs. each, who put up 195 cans of meat, soups, etc., divided into three classes: Steak, 25 No. 3 cans; steak, 38 No. 2 cans; roast, 44 No. 3 cans; stew, 32 No. 2 cans; soup, 36 No. 3 cans; chili, 20 No. 2 cans. It is estimated that the 195 cans would be sufficient to supply two good sized families with meat all through a winter. Miss Henry's work is having a telling effect in teaching the rural folks how to economize and conserve the farm resources. It has already built up a good many depleted bank accounts.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

Well-known druggists say everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

BOY SCOUTS.

The Boy Scouts of Cameron met Friday night in front of the court house. Dr. Sutton gave them a talk on flies and mosquitoes and showed how they carry germs. He offered ten dollars to the boy who killed the greatest number of flies and sometime in the near future there is to be a bon-fire of flies. The date is to be set later and merchants will be asked to have fly traps in their stores.

Dr. Sutton promised to talk to the boys again soon and tell of the kinds of mosquitoes in Cameron and their habits and how to kill them. He may be sure that every Boy Scout will gladly assist him in every way possible.

After the talk the boys went to the American Legion Hall for some boxing and wrestling. It was their pleasure to have Tommie Ryan, the great athlete, referee the boxing.

TRACK MEET.

The Interscholastic League will meet in Rockdale, March 28th and 29th of this year. Cameron will take a large part in this event and she hopes to carry off a number of ribbons and medals.

The Cameron Junior High School has faster boys than ever be Among these are Carl Hopkins, Montague Triggs, Robert Baskin and Vance Slocomb.

The school will be represented in spelling by Wilbur Crawford and Ethel Green, in declamation by Hazel Freeman and Cyrus Miller and in the essay contest by Henry McFadyen and Harriett Flinn.

It is hoped that Cameron will not be disappointed in her expectations. It will be very interesting to the citizens of our town to go and hear the pupils of our school do their share to win for Cameron and will mean much in encouragement for those who are doing their best.

VISITORS IN THE SCHOOL.

Last Friday morning the grammar school had two visitors. We were glad that they came because they told us some interesting things that will prove helpful in our work.

The first visitor was Tommy Ryan, famous ex-middle weight champion of the world who told us about his most unusual experience. Friday afternoon at the Yoe High school, he showed some of his remarkable feats of physical strength.

The second visitor was Mr. Johnson demonstrator of the Keystone Company who showed us his machine and most of the pupils are anxious to have one. The projecter is small and may easily be carried from room to room and attached to the electric socket. This would be very beneficial to the teachers. There are historical pictures that wouuld assist in history and pictures of the industries and physical features of others countries.

The vote was put before the pupils and it was unanimous for purchasing one.

SAND TABLES OF THE PRIMARY GRADES.

The teachers of the primary grades have devoted much time and thought toward making their rooms attractive and, just now, the sand tables in Mrs. Ed. York's and Miss Laura Wendt's rooms are especially pretty.

The one in Miss Wendt's room is a desert scene. The caravan winds its way across the desert, the sphinx, the pyramids and the oasis with its small tent and tiny palm trees make the children think that they themselves have been transfered to the desert sands as they gaze upon it.

Another pretty table is in the third grade room with Mrs. Ed. York as teacher. This is a Japanese garden. The little stream winding under the bridges is quite artistic. The bridges are of wood with sides made of straw. The pretty walk with Japanese lanterns strung along the way, the little flowers actually growing in the sand and other touches give a very beautiful effect. These teachers deserve much credit for the way they have succeeded in bringing so clearly before the pupils these scenes from foreign lands.

TO THE DECLAIMERS.

On Friday last
A throng quite vast Assembled to hear our declaimers.
They quoted from Guest
And I can't name the rest
But from all of our best word framers.
Of the thrity-nine
Who spoke in rhyme
And prose, for they took it all in,
Four were chosen best
And the disoppointed rest
Looked around for a hole to fall in.
On that final day
When you wend your way
To Rockdale, to speak for the prize,
Stand straight on your feet
And you'll never be beat
And will make them all open their eyes.

Paperweight Made From Old Railroad Rail Sent To Judge Jeff T. Kemp

County Judge Jeff T. Kemp received this week from the Howard Kenyon Dredging Company of Houston a three cross section of an iron railroad rail to be used as a paper weigth in his office. The paper weight is of wrought iron, manufactured in England nearly seventy years ago and recently recovered from the mud banks of the Trinity River where it had been buried for sixty six years.

The Company sent this interesting story of the Paper Weight

"This is a cross section of a wrought iron rail that was made and shipped from England to Liberty, Texas, in 1858, where it was unloaded on the Bank of the Trinity River in that year. The railroad from Liberty to Livingston was never built. The rails caused an obstruction to the overflow channel of the River and were soon covered up. The present channel is now about four hundred feet west of where the rails were placed. From that time on the recovery of these rails has been the dream of many citizens of Liberty county and others too numerous to mention. However, four of the organizers did make the attempt with various tools and one dredge. All failed. The Howard Kenyon Dredging Company of Houston, having their attention called, offered to undertake the work. We take no little pride in telling you that we recovered fifteen tons the first day our dredge arrived on the work. The rails were from eighteen to twenty-four feet below the ground from the top of the piles. The most remarkable thing about it all is the splendid condition of the iron, not a particle of rust being found on any of it, as the sample paper weight we are enclosing will show. Keep it as it was out of sight sixty-six years, never having become a part of one of our first railroads as it was intended to be.

TWO MADE CARDINALS AT ROME BY THE POPE

NOTED AMERICAN PRELATES HONORED AT PAPAL CEREMONY IN ROME.

Rome, March 24.—Monsignor Patrick J. Hayes, archbishop of New York and Monsignor George W. Mundelein, archbishop of Chicago, were made cardinals of the Roman Catholic church at a secret consistory this morning in the historic hall of consistory at the vatican. The ceremony, carried out in conformity with centuries-old ritual, was performed in majestic solemnity aid a setting of colorful splendor.

The two American prelates thus raised to the dignity of princes of the church were not present, but awaited notification of their elevation at their respective temporary places of residence in Rome, in accordance with custom. Cardinal Hayes received the biglietti, as the notification is called, at the American college, and Cardinal Mundelein at the college of propoganda.

The pope in his allocution declared America to have attained "primacy" in charity, and that he wished to remember this in an unusual way. Therefore he elevated to the sacred purple two prelats whose qualities and the importance of whose sees warranted it.

The consistory was participated in by all the cardinals resident in Rome. The hall was a dazzling mass of color. The striking violet robes of the cardinals, mingled with the purple of the monsignors of the papal household, Swiss guards in their multi-colored mediaeval uniforms and bearing halberds, papal gendarmes, officers of the vatican's armed forces and numerous functionaries in historic garb added to the picturesquess of the scene. The cardinals were anged according to rank with Cardinal Vannutelli, their octogenerarian dean, at the head.

The ringing of a bell announced the approach of the pope, who entered amid profound silence. He was clad in white, his robes standing out in bold contrast to the rest of the colorful array. He walked slowly flanked by a group of Swiss guards and members of the household. Each prelate knelt as he approached.

When the pontiff reached his place on the throne the cardinals paid him homage, each in turn approaching the throne, and kissing the papal ring.

At the conclusion the papal master of ceremonies in a low voice announced "extra omens." when all those who were not to paraticipate in the consistory had withdrawn the doors were closed and a group of Swiss guards took up their station at the entrance.

The pope rose from his throne and uttered a short prayer to the Holy Ghost for the guidance of the consistory. He next read his allocution.

The election of the two new cardinals then took place and occupied but a brief time.

Descending from his throne the pope departed between rows of cardinals who genuflected as he passed, and was escorted back to his apartments by Swiss guards and members of the household.

At the same time Monsignor Gervasi, secretary of the papal secretary of state, departed with papal couriers to notify the Americans of their elevation. The new cardinals, attended by gentlemen-in-waiting received him clad in the vestments of archbishops and each replied to the biglietta with short addresses of gratitude.

While becoming cardinals from the moment of notification, the Americans must wait until Thursday morning to be invested in the scarlet robes and hats and other insignia of their office. This ceremony which is open to the public is even more colorful than today's ceremony. To accommodate the large numbers of Americans desiring to witness it, the ceremony will be held in the huge basilica of St. Peters.

"Price Class"

the mysterious stranger in the motor industry

Does a difference in price indicate a difference in quality? Why is one car priced 25% to 50% higher than another of the same quality? The 4 questions that a buyer should ask when considering any car.

HERE are facts based on world's engineering authority. If you have any intention of buying an automobile, you are urged to read them.

No "Price Class"

There are only two kinds of automobiles today. Economically produced cars which give you more for your money. And cars which are not, and give you less.

Price does not indicate intrinsic worth. But an individual maker's cost of production.

Hence two cars may show a price difference of $400 to $1,200 and more. And be of the same quality.

The difference in price simply shows that it cost one maker more to make this car than the other. Judging value on price, this is folly. Price class is a myth.

Where the Difference Comes in Studebaker, producing 150,000 cars yearly, has reduced engineering cost to $3.33 per car.

This is based on a total engineering cost of $500,000 a year, which is the least on which any manufacturer can maintain an efficient engineering department.

Thus a manufacturer producing but 20,000 cars a year must add $25 per car for engineering, or eight times as much as Studebaker.

Other fixed overheads have been reduced proportionately. And these influence Studebaker prices.

A set of body dies costs $100,000. It will produce many thousand sets of body stampings, each one as perfect as though there were only a dozen made.

By building 50,000 bodies from a single set of dies, Studebaker reduces the die cost per body to only $2.00.

The average small manufacturer whose volume will enable him to build only 5,000 bodies from a set of dies in the same time in which Studebaker builds 50,000 has to charge each body $20 for die cost. The difference of $18 is in the price but not in the body. The customer pays it but he gets nothing tangible for it. It is one of the penalties of uneconomical manufacture.

Thus a car priced at $1,200 to $1,400 can be sold as low as $1045 when produced economically in quantity. Such a car is the Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car, at $1045. A clear difference of between $155 to $355.

The uneconomical manufacturer is not profiteering. He is unfortunately situated, that is all.

Why Studebaker excels the world in body building

For 72 years Studebaker has been a builder of quality vehicles.

This historical tradition has been inbred in generation after generation of coachmakers. And the Indiana city of South Bend is known as a world-Mecca of artisans of this craft.

In the modern $10,000,000 Studebaker body plants, there are sons and fathers and grandfathers working side by side. Their religion is fine coach building. And this is reflected in their work.

As fine body builders, Studebaker stands supreme. No other maker has the experience of Studebaker. No other the Studebaker traditions to inspire him.

Equalled Only by Costliest Foreign and American Makes

All Studebaker models are equipped with Timken bearings. There are few cars in America, regardless of price, which equal ours on this point. In our Light-Six, for instance, we put more Timken bearings than are used in any competitive car, within $1,500 of its price.

We subject Studebaker cars to 30,000 inspections. That requires 1,200 men. All told over 70,000 hand and machine operations are performed in the manufacture of a Studebaker car. In so many operations, though each one is small, there is great opportunity for economy and savings. 15% premium is paid on many steels to insure Studebaker specifications instead of "commercial run" used in cars many times Studebaker price.

No finer car can be built than the Studebaker of today. Only famous foreign cars and the most costly of American cars, compare.

See a Studebaker—Then Decide

Buy no car until you've seen a Studebaker. Go over it, point for point. Consult any unbiased expert. Ask your banker. And you will own a Studebaker.

Get an Answer to These 4 Questions Before Buying Any Car

1—Is this an assembled car? Or "partly" assembled. Insist on this answer. Assembled cars pay a profit to from 75 to 100 parts makers alone.

2—What sort of bearings? Studebakers are Timken-equipped. Everlasting smoothness and quiet performance result.

3—How many cars a year does this maker produce? Small productions mean either a higher price or cheaper car.

OUR TOWN.

will sponsor legislation to compel the invisable wealth of this state to bear its portion of the tax burden. I would require that all securities issued for private debt be registered in the office of the county clerk and I would require that registration be made a condition of the transaction and that any instrument representing wealth not so registered be open to forfeiture. I favor the enactment of suitable legislation looking to the remedy of the tax laws so that the invisable wealth of the state be placed on hte tax rolls. While this is a provision of law now, politics, inefficiency and governmental cowardice prevents a just equaison of the tax burden. I would also sponsor a bill prohibiting a rate of interest in excess of six per cent to be charged on commercial paper in this state."

OUR NEWSPAPER.

Nothing so unmistakably bespeaks a community's prosperity or stagnation as its newspapers. A good newspaper cannot live in a bad town. The fact that Cameron is not only in God's country but mighty near the center was the reason for the coming into existence of the Cameron Herald some forty-six years ago. It has always been, will always be, the aim and endeavor of this paper to go to the front line of trenches and fight for everything pertaining to the upbuilding or general welfare of the best little city in the union.

That our efforts have borne fruit and are appreciated by the people is well shown by the cordial and substantial support given our advertising and subscription departments. We in a most sincere way wish to thank the people for this support and in connection say: We realize the fact that a newspaper is a servant of the public for as soon as it fails to voice the sentiment of the entire community in which it is published it ceases to be a newspaper but becomes a porpaganda organ.

We want the Cameron Herald to be your newspaper, its columns are open to all for discussion as to the best ways and means to adopt for a continuation of the prosperity that this section is noted for and adding to our already fast growing population.

To sum it up briefly, to get out a newspaper is a mighty expensive proposition and to be successful must have the unqualified co-operation of all who have fiath in the future of their home town and its environments. Give the Herald the co-operation that any live newspaper should receive and in the future, as in the past you will always find us doing our utmost to get out the best weekly newspaper in the southwest. We Thank You.

A PIPE DREAM.

What a wonderful thing it would be for the taxpayers if an honest-to-goodness business investigation, free from the hampering strings of politics, could be carried on in every department of the government. It is probable that such an investigation, if the investigators had the power to hire and fire as occasion demanded, would result in annual savings to the taxpayers far in excess of any savings that may be hoped for as a result of investigating private business which is subject to private competition and which must sink or swim on efficiency in management.

HAMMERS THE TABLE—GETS ACTION.

The positions occupied by Chas. G. Dawes and O. D. Young as members of the American committee of the Reparations Commission, working out at plan to rehabitate German finances, are unique in the world's history.

The Amercan members of this committee are paying their own expenses in Europe, are not obligated to any foreign power and are not hampered through fear of over-stepping some point of outstanding figures in this work for world rehabilitation. Unconcerned with political expectations and anxieties of the various European governments, they have been able to play a dominant part in shaping the course of the expert's work.

Dawes, puffing his pipe and occasionally hammering the table, makes his points efficiently and keeps the committee seeking a purely business solution. Young coolly handles the matters as though he were dealing with an ordinary business problem in the board room of a corporation. The keen directness of the men has inspired confidence and also admiration.

Five years of political jealousies and intrigue have almost wrecked Europe. A few weeks of business consideration of its problems by competent men will evolve a business-like solution of the questions at issue, which European kings, presidents or premiers will not dare disregard.

The activities of Dawes and Young are having a greater effect on Europe today than the work of any American since Woodrow Wilson.

FIRE PROTECTION WORK IN UNITED STATES.

Criticism has been launched against the stock fire insurance companies of the United States by uninformed persons claiming that these companies are not interested in reducing fire losses and virtually work on a cost plus basis. This is certainly unfair to this great industry.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters, which comprises the leading insurance companies of the United States, devotes the larger part of its energy toward impressing on the public mind the terrific annual loss caused by fires.

It issues monthly a publication entitled "Safeguarding America Against Fire," thousands of copies of which are distributed monthly to libraries, insurance agents, fire marshals and persons responsible for bringing to public attention the necessity for fire prevention work. The National Board maintains a corps of engineers who go over the country surveying every important city with an eye to reducing fire risks and offering suggestions and plans for better systems of fire fighting. These surveys which are carried on systematically are free of charge and are part of the daily work of the National Board of Fire Underwriters in its effort to safe guard America against fire.

In conjunction with the National Board, the Underwriters Laboratories in Chicago is the most efficient organization in the world for testing every sort of manufactured article as to its fire resisting or fire proof qualities. After an article receives the approval of the Laboratories and is granted its label, the public has real protection from fire hazards in that particular manufactured product.

The National Board has developed a fire prevention week which is now recognized nationally over the United States and it is urging instruction in public schools in an effort to have children taught the dangers of fire. It is now distributing statistics for every state in the Union showing the terrific annual toll that is taken as the result of fires on farm property.

The mere fact that stock fire insurance companies and spending thousands of dollars annually in fire prevention work in order to reduce fire hazards and thereby reduce insurance rates is a positive refutation of accusations which have been made that these companies have no concern about mounting fire losses. No insurance company was ever ruined by scarcity of fires but many have been crippled by an epidemic of fires.

That which serves all the people should be paid for by all the people. That which is paid for by all the people should be under the control of all the people.

These are self-evident truths. We act by them when we build a Panama Canal, set aside and care for an aera of natural beauty as a public park, give land to a transcontinental railroad, establish and run an Army and a Navy, and conduct a Postal System.

The entire Nation pays to build and maintain a Navy to protect New York and other seacoast cities. The people of a great many States never see a battleship during their entire lives. There is no valid objection to this, because everyone realizes that the capture or ruin of the seacoast cities would affect the entire Nation.

The same principle holds in the construction of a national system of good roads. The whole Nation will benefit vastly from good roads—in increased prosperity, better education and development of natural resources

The money spent on rivers is all paid by the Federal Government from general taxation, yet this traffic is only a small fraction of the traffic along our improved highways, and its benefits are proportionately small.

To the farmer, a hard road means more than any other Federal activity, even the Postal Service. It is a convenience to get his mail promptly, but a good road makes it possible for him to run his farm or dairy at a much higher rate of production and greater profit, gives him and his family more of the comforts and luxuries of life, helps his children to get a better education, and raises his entire standard of living.

Why contend that roads, a public utility for all the people, should be left to different groups of people to develop, while Postal Service, Army, Navy and the projected superpower system are admitted to be national affairs?

Eleven thousand applications for naturalization in New York, caused the greatest jam in the history of the County Court House. It indicates the great desire of aliens for citizenship in this country.

Just how many of these applications, when granted, will produce citizens, and how many will produce mere possessors of naturalization papers, cannot be told. But it is evident that making citizens of foreigners wholesale cannot be impressive and that when the legal machinery has to grind through applications in a hurry, no real care and consideration can be given to each individual case.

The laws governing naturalization are fair enough; they are calculated to impress the seeker after citizenship with the importance of the step and the responsibilities attendant upon it. But it is not the law but the method and manner of its enforcement which makes the appeal; especially is this so to the foreigner of not very high mental attainments. To such as these, the policeman on the corner is much more awe-inspiring and majestic than the court which hustles him and hundreds of others through what is a routine performance, ending with the presentation of the coveted papers.

Were all immigrants made of the stuff of which Thomas Metro, Albanian, is carved the matter would not be so grave; Meltro arrived here three years ago with no knowledge of English and has just taken a Concord, N. H., first prize in elocution. But there are few such; the immigrant coming to this country to be an American citizen needs to be impressed with the value of what he seeks, and we have the responsibility to see that he is impressed. Having eleven thousand applicants in one court for naturalization sounds impressive, but it means passing on thirty a day, or one every ten minutes, which is too fast for any court to work with precision, accuracy, judgment and sanity.

Of what use is a quota law to keep down immigrants, if our naturalization procedure is permitted to swamp officials so that it is, humanely speaking, impossible for them to be more than administrators of red tape?

The Kentucky Educational League, with headquarters in Louisville, is so interested in the passage of the Education Bill, now before Congress, to create a Federal department of education with a secretary in the President's cabinet, that it has reprinted the entire text of the Sterling-Reed Bill (H. 58,784 BALES COTTON GINNED IN MILAM COUNTY FOR 1924 REPORTS SHOW.

There were 58,784 bales of cotton ginned in Milam county from the crop of 1923 according to the report of the Federal Government recently issued. From the crop of 1922 there were ginned 44,198 bales of cotton. There was a net increase in the crop of 1923 over that of 1922 of 15,586 bales.

What this increase has meant to the county is answered by a price comparison of the two years. The condition of the cotton farmer in this county is better than for many years.

DR. LEE SCARBOROUGH SPEAKS THURSDAY NIGHT

NOTED BAPTIST LEADER WILL SPEAK TO MEMBERS IN COUNTY MEETING.

Dr. Lee R. Scarborough who began his work as a minister in Cameron and pastor of the First Baptist Church, will deliver an address at the Baptist church Thursday night at a special meeting of the Baptists of Milam county.

Dr. Scarborough will bring a message as one of the greatest denominational workers of the world. Special efforts are to be made to accommodate the crowds.

The meeting will be held in the interest of the 75 Million Campaign. Rev. Hutcherson, pastor of the church has had the announcement of Dr. Scarborough's coming to Cameron announced in various parts of the county.

"More money has been raised for Baptist schools during the four and a half years of the 75 million campaign than within the 75 years prior to that period," said Dr. Lee R. Scarborough, chairman of the 75 million campaign, in an address to the student body of Baylor university, Monday morning. He is president of the Southwestern Baptist Theological seminary Fort Worth, but his headquarters, at present, are in Nashville.

Dr. Scarborough, who is making a tour of 119 Baptist schools in the south, was introduced by Dr. F. S. Groner of Dallas, general secretary of the Baptist general convention of Texas.

It was declared by Dr. Scarborough that there are at this time 40,000 students in the Baptist schools in the south.

Within the less than five years that the 75 million campaign has been in progress, according to Dr. Scarborough, 3400 additional Sunday schools and 800 B. Y. P. U.'s have been formed, making a total of 100,000 on the Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. rolls. Four and a half years ago there were 600 native workers in foreign fields: now there are 2800, and during the same period the addition of members of the Baptist denomination in foreign fields has increased 40,000.

Baptists from all over Milam county will be in Cameron on Thursday for the all day rally of the churches on the 75 million campaign.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

An important meeting of the congregation is called for by the Session for Sunday morning immediately after the morning service. We are to hear the reports of some committees and authorize the Trustees to sign a deed for a part of the church grounds we are selling.

The Every Member Canvass was a success and the results show an increase over last year. This coming Sunday will be the last of the present church year. Let us all be in our places and make a good ending. The pastor will preach morning and evening.

There will be with us beginning the 29th some representative of the Texas Presbyterian Educational Movement to conduct the campaign in this church.

H. R. McFADYEN, Pastor.

Dallas, Texas, March 24.—Texas Baptists have baptized 112,950 converts since the opening of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, Dr. F. S. Groner, general secretary of the executive board has announced. The campaign was opened in May 1919 and during that year the churches reported 16,481 baptisms. The second year of the campaign brought about 24,279 baptisms and the third year reports showed that 35,469 people were baptized. A total of 36,720 were baptized during the fourth year of the campaign this number being twice that of the first year.

Texas Baptist Missionaries have achieved a record in the number of members received into the church by bapitsm and letter. This number totaled 154,935 during the last ten years.

The accomplishments of the missionaries have been largely through their efforts to push the Baptist 75 Million campaign during the four and one-half years in which it has been carried on. The missionaries have assisted materially in carrying out the program adopted in May, 1919 at the Southern Baptist Convention in Atlanta in connection with the five year financial program.

WHILE FATHER "LISTENED IN"

By ADELAIDE R. KEMP

(©, 1924, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

MRS. ANDREWS raised her steel bowed spectacles over her gray neatly-parted hair and settled back comfortably in the old stuffed rocker. She watched her husband a little anxiously. On a low stool in front of their radio he was intent on "tuning in." The result at present was a mixture of catcalls and squealing from the graceful loud-speaker that stood just behind the mahogany case. He shook her head and frowned slightly.

"Why don't you stay where you are, pa?" she said. "That was a nice song. You're trying to find the band that plays the new-fangled music—jazz, I think they call it. You know you do," she added accusingly.

David held up a warning finger and shook his white head fretfully.

"Hush, ma. I can't get nothing when you talk. I'm trying to hear some of them good ones we heard last night—fox trots, they call 'em."

Ma rocked a little and looked around the modest sitting room. They might be moving along with the times, but, except for the shining instrument over which her husband was working so eagerly, the rest of the house remained the same. There in their places stood the old haircloth sofa and chairs prim and straight, and on the floor the carpet with its big roses. She had swept and dusted these things for nearly fifty years. On the mantel back of the chunk stove were her mother's candlesticks, and in the center a picture of their only boy, who had died when but a lad. She looked at it tenderly. Not many years now to wait. Above, on the wall, hung an old-fashioned sampler worked in red thread, "There is no place like home."

A sudden chuckle from her husband brought her back to the present. "Ain't that great, Jane! Hear 'em clap?" He was tapping his old slipper and keeping time to the fascinating music.

Mrs. Andrews acquiesced, but there was doubt in her heart. Was it right for David to be so much interested in such music at his time of life? Time was when every Sunday morning they had hitched up old Prince and driven sedately to the white meeting house. Now that winter was here, it was much easier to settle down in the warm sitting room and "listen in" to the beautiful service in some big city church. Through the week David loved to pick up the liveliest music in the air. Oh, shades of their Puritan ancestors! True, they had only reached their present comfort and rest through a life filled with the sternest kind of labor, isolated among the forgotten hills. Now, suddenly, like magic across their horizon, they were able to mingle and listen to the world.

There was a creak that seemed to come from the back shed. Mrs. Andrews turned her head quickly and looked out into the kitchen. It was dark there and only a dim light in the sitting room. They had been listening to a weird sort of play at the beginning of the evening and David had turned out the lights to make it more realistic.

The noise came again.

Mrs. Andrews' heart beat a trifle faster. Then she remembered Tommy, their old cat. He had a way of creeping about like that. David was far away in a western state and having a most enjoyable time. She would not disturb him.

Suddenly, before she could cry out, she felt something cold pressing against her forehead. Before her stood a short man with a cap pulled low over his eyes. In his hand he held the revolver which she felt at her head. His other hand was over her mouth and he made a motion for silence.

Another man, tall and gaunt of frame, was moving across the room toward the radio. David was shaking his head to the music which came rollicking into the room as if in sheer defiance of the tragedy about to be enacted there.

Swift, agonizing thoughts hurled themselves through Mrs. Andrews' brain. What was the use of that great horn, sending out its beautiful music, if it could not in turn receive and broadcast their message for help?

The cold steel of the revolver slipped slightly to the bridge of her nose. She gave one wild shriek.

"Janie! Janie!" David's arms were around her. She looked desperately about. The men were gone, and her husband was holding her close and patting her shoulder.

"Oh, David," she moaned, "they held a cold revolver to my head and it fell to my nose just as they were about to shoot you."

David gently took off her steel-rimmed spectacles and laid them on the table.

"Guess there's all the revolvers you felt, wife. That play was too much, and you fell asleep while I was fox-trotting. They just said 'good-night' to me out in Nebraska, anyway. Wait till I put Tommy out and we'll go to bed. It's 2 o'clock."

SAYS ODD FELLOWS PLAN AID FOR ORPHANS HOME

ROY LAW RETURNS FROM FORT WORTH AS DELEGATE TO STATE MEETING.

The Odd Fellows of Texas are planning to spend $100,000 for the improvement of the Orphans Home in Corsicana, according to Roy Law who has returned from Fort Worth where he attended the state meeting as a delegate from Cameron Lodge No. 56.

The convention of odd fellows met from March 17 to 21. There were in attendance some 3000 delegates representing about 50,000 Odd Fellows in Texas. Among the representatives present were Grand Sire Eastin of the Soverign Grand Lodge and the Vice Grand Sire.

In the orphans home at Corsicana says Mr. Law there are 376 orphans and 54 aged Odd Fellows and widows of Odd Fellows. The orphans are educated along literary lines and the industrial arts and vocational training.

One of the big features of the convention was the Glee Club and Band from the home with a program broadcasted by radio, some of the people in Cameron hearing the concert.

Reports indicate, Mr. Law says, favorable progress in foreign countries for the Odd Fellows. Especially is the order growing in Norway, Sweeden, Denmark and Czho Slovakia.

Mr. Law will make his report to the lodge Thursday night and Odd Fellows here will be intersted in the things he will tell about the grand lodge meeting.

R. S. PORTER.

The following obituary of one of the most honored of Cameron's pioneer merchants appeared in a recent number of the Texas Christian Advocate:

Mr. R. S. Porter was born in Hall county, Georgia, June 22, 1835 and died at the home of his son W. M. Porter, Weinert, Texas, R. R. No. 2 January 13, 1924.

Brother Porter was married to Miss Susan Hawlett 1872 who lived just a few months after her marriage.

In 1875 he was married to Miss Fannie Martin, the daughter of Dr. Ed. A. Martin, a pioneer citizen of Milam county. To this union was born three sons, Ed. Franklin, who a few months ago preceeded his father to the Glory World, William Martin of Weinert, Texas, and Raymond Beauford of Cushing, Oklahoma.

When a young man Bro. Porter united with the Masonic order and was a Knight Templar for a number of years.

Under the preaching of Dr. C. R. Wright, Brother Porter was converted and united with the Methodist church at Cameron, Texas, 1889. He served as steward and Sunday School teacher in his Church.

The Lord blessed him with a long and useful life. Had he lived until June 22 he would have been eighty-nine years old.

He was blessed in a financial way, and he gave liberally to all good causes.

Mrs. T. S. Henderson of Cameron, Texas, an old friend of the Porter family, sent a letter of condolence to Sister Porter and told her how that when Brother Porter was in business at Cameron, that each year when she went to him and told him that she was preparing a box to send to Buckner's Orphan Home, he always gave three suits of clothes. These suits being a number larger each year. He donated to the building of the Churches of Cameron, as well as many others.

Shortly before his death he called to his bed-side his good wife, who for nearly a half of a century had helped him fight the battles of life, and told her and other loved ones that he realized that he had to go, but he was willing and ready to go. Then his spirit took its flight to be with God.

Besides his wife and two sons, Bro. Porter leaves three sisters, Mrs. R. P. Talley of Temple, Texas; Miss Rachel and Miss Belle Porter of Flowery Branch, Georgia and one brother Judge Anderson Porter.

The writer conducted the religious services in the home, after which the Masonic order took charge of the body and laid it to rest in the Goree Cemetery.—H. W. Barnett, Weinert, Texas.

Luther Johnson Candidate For Re-Election Congress

Representative Luther Johnson of the Sixth Texas district whose home is in Corsicana has announced his candidacy for reelection to the office of congressman.

Mr. Johnson is serving his first term in office. His announcement will be received with great interest by his many friends in Milam county and throughout the district which he represents in Congress.

It has been of interest to his friends throughout the district to watch his work in the congress an instance of which was noted recently when he made his maiden speech in the house of representatives in which he won exemptions for mutual life insurance associations in the revenue bill.

Representative Johnson delivered his maiden speech and won his first fight in this congress when the house, by a vote of 98 to 87, accepted his amendment to the pending revenue bill so as to exempt from taxation "all benevolent mutual life insurance associations not operated for profit whose business is purely local and wholly for the benefit of its members."

The victory was not won without battle for the amendment was opposed by the ways and means committee. Chairman Green first raised that the amendment was not germane, but withdrew it as he said to save time, "since the amendment will be defeated anyway." With that the new member from Texas gained the floor and tersely pointed out that these mutual associations, a number of which are operated in many localities of Texas and elsewhere, furnish aid and relief for those unable to carry regular life insurance. He explained that as operated an assessment of $1.10 is made on the death of a member and of this $1 goes to the bereaved family and the 10 cents assessed for operating expenses. It was his contention that such associations could not operate if forced to pay taxes, citing the fact that the government is seeking to collect $2,000 in Taxes from the Home Benefit association of Hillsboro. Several other Texans including Representatives Blanton and Hudspeth, rallied to support of their colleague and when the vote was called the admendment was adopted.

Mr. Johnson's legislative duties did not begin until the convening of the present Congress, in December last, giving him, therefore, only a little more than two months service in the Halls of Congress.

He is serving upon four committees namely: Civil Service, Labor, Pensions and Flood Control, the last assignment having come to him only recently. Shortly after his appointment thereto, this Committee reported out a bill authorizing preliminary survey for flood control on four Texas, Rivers, naemly: Brazos, Trinity, Colorado and Guadalupe.

This bill does not appropriate a large sum of money, but its chief value would be to authorize the use of the surveys heretofore made by the Federal Government when these streams were sought to be made navigable. This information possessed by the Federal Government, without this law, is not available, and will be worth a great deal to Texas and its citizens in any effort made to survey the streams with reference to flood control.

Mr. Johnson has sought to serve his constituents in the departmental work, and to comply with all requests with promptness and efficiency.

EVANS' Corner

This corner is devoted to business, politics and general news.

The town and community is being flooded with advertisement from a spectacle house in Chicago, who claims to fit you, without ever examining your eyes. It is absolutely unthinkable that a man in Chicago could give you a properly fitting pair of glasses just by telling him your age and how long you have worn glasses.

Your eyes are, or should be, very precious to you. Istead of paying $4.98 for these Chicago spectacles, you can do just as well here by calling on one of the Racket Stores and paying 50 cents for a pair.

If you need glasses you had better have some one to fit you who has made a study of fitting glasses. In our office we have precision instruments for testing your eyes.

EPIDEMIC OF BURGLARY HITS TOWN OF THORNDALE.

All epidemics, spread rapidly over the county and no one seems to be able to explain just how or why such is the case. That several towns in a radius of fifty and one hundred miles of Thorndale have been visited by one or more burglaries is common knowledge, including Rockdale, Cameron, Taylor and othter nearby places during the past several days, but of course, we of Thorndale had hopes of escaping this visitation. But not so.

On Monday night of this week the Thorndale Mercantile Company's store was broken into and robbed of several dozen silk shirts a number of pairs of men's fine shoes, silk hose and silk ties, men's suits and hats, and possibly other garments and goods which had not been checked at the time this is written.

Entrance was effected by breaking a large plate glass window of the grocery department which fronts on a side street. No groceries were missed.

Constable James was notified of the presence of two young men in town the evening before and came to town after supper and remained on the lookout until one o'clock the night of the robbery, when, as it seemed to him, everything was normal and the two young men were reported having been seen walking down the road towards Conoley about nine o'clock, Mr. James went home and retired for the night.

The robbery was reported to Mr. L. G. Butts, manager of the Gents' Furnishing Department, early Tuesday morning and he immediately begun to check up and start the officers on the trail of the culprits. No clue which will likely lead to the guilty party or parties have been discovered so far.

Mr. Butts estimated the loss hurridly Tuesday morning at between $300 to $500. Many theories have been advanced as to what relief the Thorndale people have from these sporadic burglaries but the Champion belives that all suspicious looking characters entering our town should be able to give a reasonable version as to what their business is and where they came from as well as to what they contemplate doing here. If the motive is pure and reasonable no disgrace results, and if the story seems doubtful hold the men for further checking the statements and verification of their story. All in favor of that policy please make it known by saying 'I" in loud and vociferous tones.—Thorndale Champion.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK SPECIAL NEAR THORNDALE SATURDAY

It is believed an attempt was made to wreck the south bound Sunshine Special last Saturday afternoon at a point about two miles west of Thorndale. A large telephone pole was placed across the rails by someone who had made his get-away without being seen. Mr. Robert Rainwater noticed the pole and also three Mexicans some distance from the pole on the right-of-way as he was coming to town and reported the fact to Constable James who immediately notified Mr. Maddox, the local agent of the I. G. N., and left at once to make an investigation and arrest the Mexicans mentioned by Mr. Rainwater for examination. Mr. Maddox in the meantime had the pole removed a considerable time before the Special was due to arrive in Thorndale.

The Mexicans were arrested and held until Sunday when Mr. James and an official of the railroad company visited the scene and found it impossible to place the responsibility on either of the three Mexicans arrested. Barefoot tracks were the only tracks noticeable at the point where the pole had been placed on the track and these were those of children. The Mexicans were released and no clue has been found to help the officers run down the guilty party or parties.—Thorndale Champion.

CONFEDERATE PENSIONS TO BE $32 FOR QUARTER.

Austin, Texas, March 21.—Confederate pensions for the next quarter will be the highest ever paid in Texas and will be $32 each, against $31 being paid for the current quarter, which terminates on May 31. The new amount was approved Friday at a conference between C. V. Terrell, State Treasurer, and Lon A. Smith, State Comptroller, and will be sent out as of June 1.

Increased revenues and deaths among the old veterans and their widows is responsible for the increased amount to be paid those living. There now are more than 13,000 pensioners, a material reduction under the number of ten years ago, with the war over sixty years ago the average age of the surviving veterans is close to 80 years. The advanced average age means a heavy annual mortality rate.

Old veterans residing in the Confederate Home and the widows of veterans domiciled in the Confederate Woman's Home receive half the amount of pensions paid those not in the homes. For the next quarter they will get $16 each, plus their board, clothing and quarters in the homes. The half pension provides them with some spending money which they would not otherwise have.

PAUL MILTON SANDERS

Died on Saturday and was buried on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Sanders had lived for more than ten years on the County Poor Farm and was a favorite there. Until recently he was a familiar figure on the streets of Cameron and he had made many friends who will regret his passing.

He was a member of the Christian church and a regular attendant upon its services, and some members of that organization attended his funeral and paid respect to his memory.

Mr. Sanders was a Bible student and could quote many passages of scripture.

His last illness was of about two weeks duration. He was patient in suffering and he will be greatly missed by his friends.

A TALK WITH A CAMERON MAN.

Mr. W. H. Ledbetter, horseshoer, E. First Street, Tells His Experience

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We, therefore, give here an interview with a Cameron man:

"Everybody knows that horseshoeing is hard on the back and kidneys, owing to the position and strain across the kidneys when holding a horse's foot," says Mr. Ledbetter. "My back became weak and my kidneys caused annoyance by the too frequent passages of the secretions, which were, at times, painful. It seemed as if the muscles of my back were tied in a knot and when I stooped, it was mighty painful to straighten. I took Doan's Pills and they relieved me quickly."

SOCIETY NEWS

BY MRS. JEFF T. KEMP

EASTERN STAR.

The Cameron Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star held an interesting meeting on Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Criswell of Buckholts and Mrs. Elonia Braun of Milano, out of town members, were present.

R. H. Redfield presented the Chapter with a gavel made from the historic cedar wood used in the construction of Old Fort Nashville, Mrs. K. K. Robbins voiced the appreciation of the Chapter for this appropriate gift.

The construction and furnishing of the State Eastern Star Home at Arlington, Texas, brings to realization one of the aims of the order.

The following press notice of the home will be of interest to members of the Order of the Eastern Star:

Arlington, Texas—In October, 1922 at a session in Dallas of the Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Arlington was selected as the logical site for the location of a home for aged and indigent members of the order and their orphaned children.

During September, 1923, in Arlington, the hopes and dreams and plans and labors of the order were brought to full fruition when a committee of Arlington members of the order, working in conjunction with a committee of trustees of the Grand Chapter let the contract totaling $212,000 for modern buildings to comprise the home.

The site selected was a plot of twenty acres on an eminence just east of the city limits overlooking the Bankhead Highway and all the surrounding country on the south, on what is known as the Mrs. Fields property.

The contract for the main building, which is to be 195 feet and 10 inches east and west, with two wings 180 feet in length north and south, and it is to be of the Greek cross style of architecture, was let to the Munn Construction Company of Dallas for $171,000. Contracts for the plumbing heating and electrical appliances were let to Fort Worth and San Antonio firms, and made up the rest of the total sum of construction.

Approximately one-half the land chosen for the site for the home represents a donation to the order of nine acres near the Masonic Home in West Arlington, by Sam P. Cochran and Mrs. Cochran of Dallas some years ago. When the Order of the Eastern Star later acquired ownership of the ten acres of the Fields property the other ten acres of the present site of the home was purchased by the Masons, who then traded the ten acres for the nine owned by the Eastern Star.

At the same session at which Arlington was selected as the site for the home the Grand Chapter of the order instructed the building committee to proceed without unnecessary delay with the erection of the first section of the home. This committee, composed of Dr. C. McDaniel, San Antonio, chairman; M. T. Bell, Waco; Mrs. Carrie B. Land, Houston; Mrs. Beulah B. Huddleston, Dallas, and R. W. Lemond, Hale Center, immediately set in motion their plans and selected William Cameron, architect of San Antonio, to provide the plans and specifications.

The building, when completed, will be of fireproof construction throughout, with a slate roof set in concrete, and every room will be so arranged that all will be provided with outside exposure, with free ventilation and full access to the sunlight. Work on the home is progressing rapidly.

Smashes All Southwestern Conference Discus Records

Jack Taylor, former Yoe High School athlete has smashed all Southwestern Conference records in a discus throw at Baylor University, Waco, Monday. Friends in Cameron of the star will be pleased to hear of this new record.

Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Taylor of Cameron. The following was taken from the Waco-Times-Herald of Monday:

A bright star loomed on the horizon of Baylor's track history Monday afternoon when Freshman Jack Taylor of Cameron hurled the discus for the record-breaking distance of 150 feet in working out on the Baylor athletic field

The importance of this throw can only be understood when compared with other records made. The distance in the Southwestern Conference in 1923, made by Goodman of Baylor, was only 127 feet, while the conference record, held by "Tiny" Keen of Texas A. and M., is only 132 feet six inches. The record for the high school Interscholastic league is 139 feet, held by Doss Richardson of Sherman high school, now at the University of Missouri, along with Mack Keeble of Austin high school fame. The world's record is 156 feet, 1 3-8 inches.

As a result of this record made by Taylor, Coach Ralph Wolfe of the Bruin track team announced that he would be sent, along with "Mule" Frazier, to New Orleans in the spring to compete for place on the Olympic team from the United States.

Taylor has a good high school record having been sent last year to Chicago, with Sam Coates from Waco and other Texas high school track men. Taylor placed in the meet at Chicago but did not win first place. Under the tutelage of Coach Wolfe, Taylor has developed his wonderful possibilities to a marked degree and he looms as a sensation in the conference. Taylor tips the scales at around 210 pounds and is six feet four inches tall. He was a star tackle and passer on the Fish football team of the past season.
